HOLD SERVE

Alicia Smith (So./Salina, Kan.) is currently tied for the team lead in points with four on the season. She is also the team leader in assists with two on the season, giving her an average of 0.50 which ties her for first in the MIAA. She centered a pass across to Amanda Miano to get the assist on the Hornets first goal of the season in their home opener against Newman.

GRAND MIANO

Amanda Miano (So./Olathe, Kan.) got the first goal of the season for the Hornets scoring in the eight minute of the home opener against Newman University on August 29.

RIEMER REASON

Caitlin Riemer (Jr./Shawnee, Kan.) got her first goal of the season against Angelo State on September 2. She is tied for second in goals scored on the season for the Hornets.

MARSHLAND

Shelley Marsh (Jr./Olathe, Kan.) made crucial save in the home opener against Newman on Aug. 29. With the goal open Marsh chased down Newman shot making a sliding kick save to keep the Jets off the board.

RALPH LAUREN POLO

Lauren Cathey (Fr./Fort Collins, Colo.) got her first assist of the season in the Hornets 4-3 loss to Angelo State on September 2. She is one of three freshman to appear in all seven games for the Hornets this season.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

Emporia State brings in three freshman to go along with seven sophomores. The Hornets have six juniors and no seniors on the squad this season.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Hornets were 3-4-0 at home last season. ESU is 28-22-5 all time at the TRYSA Complex with a 17-14-5 record since the beginning of the 2003 season. ESU has not won a road match since defeating Missouri Western on Sept. 11, 2005, a string of 17 matches. The Hornets are 6-9-2 at home during that time.
