2008 EMPORIA STATE SOCCER GAME NOTES

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

The Hornets feature nine new faces this season with five freshman starting the first game for the Hornets. The Hornets only have three seniors going into this season.

STILLMOCKING IT

Jennifer Stillmock (Fr. • Omaha, Neb.) is second in the MIAA in saves per match. She has started seven games in goal for the Hornets this season. She has 64 saves on the season and was the first goalkeeper to record wins in her first two career decisions since 2001 and first to win back to back games since 2005. Combined with Tina Commons for the first shut-out by a ESU since 2006 when they defeated Avila 3-0. She held the high-powered Truman offense, which entered the contest averaging 2.5 goals and 8.5 shots on goal, to one goal in only three attempts.

MISS SMITH GOES TO EMPORIA

Alicia Smith (Jr. • Salina, Kan.) is probable for the match with UNO. She now leads the Hornets with three goals on the season after scoring the Hornets only goal against Missouri Southern. She is leading the Hornets in shots taken with 28 on the season. She is tied for lead in points with seven on the season after getting her first assist against Missouri Western. She also leads the Hornets in shots on goals, along with Alison Germany with nine on the season.

MISS GERMANY

Alison Germany (Fr. • Spring, Texas) now leads the Hornets in assists with three on the season. She added her second goal of the season against NWMSU. She is tied for the team lead in shots on goal.

MARSHLAND
