ON THE ROAD AGAIN

The Hornets will head back on the road in MIAA play against Southwest Baptist and Central Missouri. The Hornets are 2-0 this season when playing away from the city of Emporia.

THE COACHES

Jim Schneiderhahn is 6-38-1 in his third year at ESU and 45-81-7 in his eighth year as a head coach. He came to ESU after serving as an assistant coach at Tulane University. He was the head coach at Benedictine from 2000-04. He holds a United State Soccer Federation (USSF) National "A" Coaching License.

Benjamin Wade is 27-21-12 in his 4th season with the Bearcats.

Lewis Theobald is 18-5-5 in his 2nd season with the Jennies.

LAST TIME OUT

The Hornets fell to #10 Truman 1-0 at the TRYSA Complex on Saturday. ESU only allowed the tenth ranked Bulldogs three shots on goal and won the corner kicks 4-3. Isabel Gaeta scored the TSU goal in the 67th minute of the game after a Theresa Bauler pass beat goalkeeper Jennifer Stillmock.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENTS

Southwest Baptist is 4-0 on the season 3-0 in conference play. Rhiane Mitchell has 10 goals and three assists while Nicola Cousins has six goals and eight assists. Joanna Olson has 18 saves and has only allowed one goal this season.

Central Missouri is 5-1-1 and 3-0 in conference play. Melanie Hall has five goals on the season while Sharaya Sidebottom leads the squad with three assists. Lauren Bamvakis is 5-1-1 in goal with 23 saves and only five goals allowed.

LAST TIME AGAINST SBU/UCM

The Hornet soccer team fell 3-0 to Southwest Baptist on a day that was plagued with rain throughout. The Bearcats had 28 fouls in a game that saw three yellow cards issued.

The ESU soccer team held the lead for 89:41 seconds of their match with UCM before the Jennies broke through for a goal in the final minute in the Hornets 2-1 double overtime loss.

UP NEXT

The Hornets will return to ESU for their final match on the ESU Pitch when Missouri Southern comes to town. Kick-off for the match on Oct. 2 is scheduled for 4 p.m.

2008 EMPORIA STATE SOCCER GAME NOTES

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

The Hornets feature nine new faces this season with five freshman starting the first game for the Hornets. The Hornets only have four seniors going into this season.

STILLMOCKING IT

Jennifer Stillmock (Fr. • Omaha, Neb.) made her return to the starting line-up against Truman. She has started four games in goal for the Hornets this season. She has 18 saves on the season and is the first goalkeeper to record wins in her first two career decisions since 2001 and first to win back to back games since 2005. Combined with Tina Commons for the first shut-out by a ESU since 2006 when they defeated Avila 3-0. She held the high-powered Truman offense, which entered the contest averaging 2.5 goals and 8.5 shots on goal, to one goal and only three shots on goal.

MISS SMITH GOES TO EMPORIA

Alicia Smith (Jr. • Salina, Kan.) now leads the Hornets with two goals on the season after scoring the Hornets only goal against Rockhurst. She got her first goal of the season in the 47th minute against Missouri S & T. She is leading the Hornets in shots taken with 20 on the season. She now also leads the Hornets in points with five on the season after getting her first assist against Missouri Western.

MISS GERMANY

Alison Germany (Fr. • Spring, Texas) returned to the Hornet line-up against Missouri Western. She started the first game for the Hornets this season. She had a goal and an assist against Angelo State on Aug. 29. She has five shots and all of them have been on goal.

MARSHLAND

Shelly Marsh (Sr. • Olathe, Kan.) got her first assist of the season against Rockhurst. She scored her first career game winning goal as she propelled ESU to a 1-0 win over East Central.

HOUSE OF COMMONS

Tina Commons (Sr. • Emporia, Kan.) was the first Hornet to be named MIAA Player of the Week since 2005. She got her first career win and shutout against Missouri Western. She has appeared in the last four games in goal for the Hornets and has a 1.66 goals against average. She played the final seven minutes in goal in the Hornets 1-0 shutout of East Central. She is currently leading the Hornets in saves with 30 on the season. She ranks second in the MIAA In saves per game, sixth in shut-outs and is eighth in goals against average.

SARAH SILVERMAN PROGRAM

Sarah Anderson (Fr. • Overland Park, Kan.) scored her first career goal in the 51st minute of ESU's 2-1 win over Angelo State.

DON'T HAVE A COW-AN

Kelsey Cowan (Fr. • Olathe, Kan.) is tied with Alison Germany, Shelley Marsh, Alicia Smith and Amanda Miano for the lead in assists as each now have one.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN TIME

Lauren Cathey (So. • Fort Collins, Colo.) is out for the game against SBU and UCM with an injury. She got her first goal of the season in the 79th minute to give the Hornets a 1-0 win over Missouri Western. She is now tied for the team lead with five shots on goal.
