

BAE Faculty at Kansas Cavalry Encampment, Wichita, June 2006

Photo Courtesy of Bill Smith

Bill Barnes, right, BAE faculty, talks to Christopher White Walker, and his wife, Ashley, shortly before Mr. Walker accepted the Kansas Business Hall of Fame Historical Heritage Award on behalf of his great-grandfather, William Allen White, at the Kansas Cavalry Encampment, in Wichita.

Mr. Barnes was recently appointed Assistant Director of the Kansas Business Hall of Fame. Dr. Raffaele DeVito, BAE faculty, was recently appointed Executive Director of the Kansas Business Hall of Fame, replacing Dr. Ken Schallenkamp. Dr. William Smith, BAE Department Chair, continues to serve the Kansas Business Hall of Fame as Web Manager and Archivist. For more on the Kansas Business Hall of Fame presentations at the Kansas Cavalry Encampment, see: <http://www.emporia.edu/business/kbhfhome.php>.

Photo Courtesy of Bill Smith

Dr. Ken Schallenkamp, BAE faculty, greets Kansas Business Hall of Fame Contemporary Award recipient, Lyle Yost, just prior to the Award ceremony. The Kansas Cavalry Encampment was Dr. Schallenkamp's final official activity prior to departing for his new work at Black Hills State University in South Dakota with his wife, President Kay Schallenkamp.

Kansas Governor Kathleen Sebelius presented the Kansas Business Hall of Fame Awards as well as several other awards including the Exporter of the Year Awards. Dr. DeVito has been an important part of that program from many years, as well.

Photo Courtesy of Bill Smith

ESU School of Business Dean Robert Hite, with his wife, Dr. Nancy Hite, BAE faculty, at the Kansas Cavalry Encampment, along with Dr. Richard Burke, President, Dodge

City Community College (DCCC) and Kansas Business Hall of Fame Board member, and his wife, Georgia, a faculty member at DCCC.

Photo Courtesy of Bill Smith

Here outgoing ESU President Kay Schallenkamp talks with former Lt. Gov. Gary Sherrer, and ESU Alum, prior to the Awards Ceremony. Mr. Sherrer will teach his Leadership course this coming fall for the BAE Department at the Metro Learning Center in Overland Park, Kansas.

Newsletter compiled by William L. Smith (smithwil@emporia.edu),
Department Chair, August 2006
Comments welcomed