

Flint Hills Training Workshop Series 2007

Training for Oral History Interviewers
January 17, 2007, Workshop
Roe Cross Conference Room, Cremer Hall
School of Business, Emporia State University

Sponsored by the Flint Hills Heritage Task Force
Hosted by the ESU Center for Business and Economic Development (CBED)

Agenda

Welcome and Introductions – Bill Smith

Participants introduce selves – name, location, affiliation(s)

Dr. Smith will briefly describe the program, agenda, handouts, Task Force

Participants, tell your interests: name, our program, your program, etc.

Session One: Oral History Planning and Techniques – Jim Hoy

Break – drinks, snacks, and good conversations

Session Two: Release forms, photos, preservation, repositories, transcriptions, etc., etc.

Workshop Leadership:

Dr. Bill Smith – Professor and Director, Center for Business and Economic Development; Heritage Task Force Member
wsmith@emporia.edu; 620-341-5729

Dr. Jim Hoy – Professor and Director, Center for Great Plains Studies; Heritage Task Force Member
jhoy@emporia.edu; 620-341-5549

Photos from the Workshop follow:

CBED Director Bill Smith speaking to the group during the Introductions:

Fourteen persons participated in the workshop.

Jim Hoy discusses oral history techniques with workshop participants

