ALSO TODAY

What: "When the World Spoke Arabic: The Golden Age of Arab Civilization" is back! The Arabic Language and Culture Club will start presenting a series of Arabic Language and Culture shows (27 minutes with a post-viewing discussion) during this semester. This series of shows is part of: When the World Spoke Arabic: The Golden Age of Arab Civilization Series.

The first show is entitled: The Andalusian Epic: Islamic Spain

Where: Roosevelt Hall, Room 209

Abstract: This program addresses the expansion of the Arab empire into Spain, where Muslims ruled with tolerance for more than seven centuries. The introduction and consolidation of Islamic power in Spain, the creation of the Umayyad emirate by the sole survivor of the Umayyad dynasty, the rise of Cordoba as a cultural rival of Abbasid Baghdad, and the gradual ebb of Arab rule on the Iberian Peninsula are all discussed. Special attention is given to the prosperous reign of Abdel Rahman III and the flowering of a Muslim culture that respectfully welcomed the contributions of Christians and Jews alike. (Portions in French with English subtitles, 27 minutes)

Please join us in this exciting Arabic Language and Culture Show series and opportunity to taste some Arabic coffee and tea, and get together with colleagues, students, and friends to discuss the show.

This event is sponsored by the Department of English, Modern Languages, and Journalism. For more information, contact Dr. Sehlaoui, The Arabic Language and Culture Club Sponsor, at asehlaou@emporia.edu
