

FACULTY RESEARCH AND CREATIVITY GRANT AWARDS FOR FISCAL YEAR 2005

Tim Burnett, Biological Sciences. The Impact of Intestinal Microbial Load on the Pathogenesis of Cystic Fibrosis. $8,280 for a graduate assistant and $4,100 for operating expenditures.

Cathy Perley and Rebecca Miller, School of Library and Information Management. Job Titles and Job Descriptions of Information Professionals Working in Business Settings. $1,250 for operating expenditures.

Charles Pheatt, Mathematics, Computer Science, and Economics, and Jorge Ballester, Physical Sciences. Low-Cost Three-Dimensional Scanning Using 3D Spatial Sampling. $2,915 for operating expenditures.

Gregory Schneider, Social Sciences. The Conservative Century: From Reaction to Revolution. $1,500 for operating expenditures.

Marcia Schulmeister, Physical Sciences. A Preliminary Investigation of the Neosho River Alluvial Aquifers Near Emporia, Kansas. $6,900 for a graduate assistant and $4,030 for operating expenditures.

Gregory Smith, Biological Sciences. The Impacts of Biotic Homogenization on Mammal Richness and Abundance on the Flinthills National Wildlife Refuge. $8,280 for a graduate assistant and $4,743 for operating expenditures.

Leland Sudlow, Biological Sciences. Susceptibility of Neurons to the Beta-amyloid Peptide of Alzheimer's Disease During Exposure to Elevated Levels of Insulin Associated with Type II Diabetes. $2,502 for operating expenditures.