

Advance Your Career

Change fields or advance your current career with a graduate degree from Emporia State University. With a variety of programs offered on-campus, online or as accelerated programs, you can get a degree that helps you achieve your educational and career goals in a way that works for your schedule. To learn more about graduate study at Emporia State University, visit emporia.edu/grad.

Graduate Degrees

Master of Arts (MA) and/or Master of Science (MS)

Applied Sociology

Community Leadership

Criminal Justice

Art Therapy Counseling

Athletic Training

Biology

Clinical Counseling

Addictions Counseling

Mental Health Counseling

Rehabilitation Counseling

Autism Spectrum Disorders

Deaf and Hard of Hearing

Clinical Psychology

Curriculum + Instruction

Curriculum Leadership PreK-12

Effective Practitioner PreK-12

National Board Certification PreK-12

Instructional Coach/Teacher Leader

Early Childhood Unified

Educational Administration

PreK-12

Elementary Education

Forensic Science

Biology

Chemistry

Criminalistics

Health, Physical Education + Coaching

Informatics

Quantitative Economics

Information Technology

Instructional Design + Technology

Instructional Specialist

Dyslexia

Elementary Content

Elementary STEM

Reading Specialist Pre-K-12

Mathematics

Psychology

Educational Psychology

Experimental Psychology

School Psychology

School Counseling

Special Education

Gifted, Talented + Creative

High Incidence

Master of Science in Nursing (MSN)

Nursing Education

Nursing Manager + Leader

Master of Accountancy (MACC)

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

Accounting

Information Systems

Marketing

Master of Library Science (MLS)

Archives Studies

Health Information Professionals

Informatics

Leadership + Administration

Outreach + Community Engagement

School Library Media

Youth Services

Master of Education in Teaching (M.Ed.)

Specialist in Education (Ed.S.)

School Psychology

Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)

Library + Information Management

Informatics

Information Systems

Instructional Design + Technology

Graduate Certificates

Archives
Autistic Spectrum Disorders
Dyslexia
Economic Education
eLearning + Online Teaching
Elementary Literacy
Elementary STEM
Geospatial Analysis
Health Information Professionals
Informatics
Leadership + Administration in Information Organizations
Mathematics
Psychology of Learning
Quantitative Economics
Secondary Literacy
Social-Emotional Learning + Psychological Well-Being
Teaching with Technology
Youth Services

Graduate Licensure Programs

Building Level Licensure
District Level Licensure
Early Childhood Unified B-K
Early Childhood Unified B-8
Reading Specialist
School Library Media
Special Education, Gifted, Talented + Creative
Special Education, High Incidence