The Action Research became a requirement for the Master Teacher – Subject Matter Elementary in the fall of 2007. Candidates admitted in the Fall of 2007 were the first group required to complete the action research course. Three program completers in 2008-2009 chose to do the action research.