Overall our areas of strength are:

Comfort, Convenience & Safety
- 99.6% of residents feel safe in the halls.
- 90.1% of residents agree that their RA is accessible.
- 89.8% of residents were satisfied with the cleanliness of their residence hall.
- 89.7% of residents agree that their RA treated residents as individuals.
- 88.5% of residents feel their RA has established an environment on their floor where University policies are fairly and consistently upheld.
- 87.8% of residents feel their RA demonstrated respect for residents’ backgrounds and values.
- 87% of residents feel their RA followed up in a timely manner if needed.

Engagement within their community
- 90.2% of resident feel their RA in knowledgeable about campus resources.
- 89.4% of residents feel their fellow residents respect the rights of others on their floor.
- 87.4% of residents feel their RA invested time and effort to get to know them.
- 87% of residents feel their RA followed up in a timely manner if needed.
- 86.3% of residents feel living in the residence halls has enhanced their engagement in the campus community.
- 85.9% of residents feel their RA spends time on the floor interacting with residents.
- 85.1% of residents feel living in the residence halls has enhanced their ability to develop healthy personal relationships.

Social Atmosphere
- 89.4% of residents feel their fellow residents respect the rights of others on their floor.
- 87.4% of residents feel their RA invested time and effort to get to know them.
- 85.9% of residents feel their RA spends time on the floor interacting with residents.
- 85.1% of residents feel living in the residence halls has enhanced their ability to develop healthy personal relationships.

Learning Environment
- 88.5% of residents feel their RA served as a positive role model for residents in regard to his/her behavior.

Overall our areas for growth are:

Engagement within their community
- 50.8% of residents agree that their Complex Coordinator visible in the building and on residence hall floors.
- 65.7% of residents know who their Complex Coordinator is.
- 74.1% of residents agree that their RA has encouraged them to plan activities in their community, participate in MAC/TAC, and/or get involved in campus organizations.
- 74.4% of residents feel comfortable seeking assistance from other Residential Life staff members in the building if their RA is not available.
Emporia State University Office of Residential Life
All Campus Averages for Fall 2012 Floor Feedback Survey

• 74.5% of residents feel comfortable going to their Complex Coordinator with an issue or concern.
• 75.6% of residents feel capable of asking a fellow resident to reduce noise levels.

Comfort, Convenience & Safety
• 65.7% of residents know who their Complex Coordinator is.
• 69.3% of residents know how to contact their Complex Coordinator if needed.
• 74.5% of residents feel comfortable going to their Complex Coordinator with an issue or concern.

Social Atmosphere
• 72.4% of residents feel that interacting with other students on their floor has contributed to their overall learning at Emporia.
• 75.6% of residents feel capable of asking a fellow resident to reduce noise levels.

Learning Environment
• 72.4% of residents feel that interacting with other students on their floor has contributed to their overall learning at Emporia.