Did you know?

…that ESU Classified Personnel have a scholarship fund for their dependents/children to attend Emporia State University?

If you have a dependent or child planning to attend ESU this fall encourage them to apply! It’s simple!

The application / awarding requirements are:

1. Be a dependent or child of ESU Classified Personnel:
2. Apply for admission to the University for 2012-2013;
3. If a continuing student, be in good academic standing;
4. Attend ESU in at least half time enrollment; and,
5. Return the Application below by March 2, 2012

Encourage your student to complete the application form below for consideration of a “Classified Personnel Dependent/Child Scholarship Fund” award for the 2012-2013 fall semester. Your status as ESU Classified Personnel will be verified by the ESU Human Resources Office.

If you are interested in making a pledge to the Classified Personnel Dependent/Child Scholarship Fund, please contact Angela Fullen at ext. 6465 or afullen@emporia.edu.
