COURSE DESCRIPTION:

An introduction to the concepts and tools associated with providing accounting information to management. Major topics include; cost behavior, cost estimation, cost accumulation and assignment; budgeting, responsibility accounting, and the uses of accounting information for control.

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

1. To provide an understanding of cost concepts.
2. To enhance the understanding of the costing process for goods and services.
3. To provide understanding of the managerial accounting concepts for planning and controlling operations and decision making.
4. To incorporate ethical issues as appropriate.
5. To utilize current technology as appropriate.
SPECIAL FEATURES OF THE COURSE:

Computer/Writing/Ethics Assignments: These are primarily intended to strengthen skills, spreadsheet applications, written communication skills and understanding of ethical issues.

COURSE EVALUATION PROCESS:

Your grade will be determined on a curve, and thus the curved minimum percentages for each letter grade may be lower than the standard 90/80/70/60% cutoffs. Each exam will be assigned 100 points, the homework will be assigned 10 points per chapter, making a total of 610 points.

Students admitted to the School of Business in the Fall of 2008 and thereafter must have a minimum 2.35 cumulative grade-point average at the time of admission. Students graduating from the School of Business must have a minimum 2.35 cumulative grade-point average and also a 2.35 minimum grade-point average in the School of Business Core Curriculum courses.

Exams will be given during the regularly scheduled class periods, except the last exam which will be given at the time scheduled by the University. Each exam will consist primarily of multiple choice questions. Calculators will be required and may not be shared. With a valid and verified excused absence an exam may be taken early or late at the instructor’s discretion. It is the student’s responsibility to notify the instructor as early as possible regarding a possible excused absence.

Graded assignments will include in-class quizzes and problems. Spreadsheet usage and ethical considerations will be included.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Students are responsible for any announcements, projects, assignments, etc. made or conducted during the class periods. Students who decide to withdraw and receive an automatic “W” must complete the formal withdrawal procedure by Wednesday, October 24, 2012.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:

At Emporia State University, academic dishonesty is a basis for disciplinary action. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, activities such as cheating and plagiarism (presenting as one’s own the intellectual or creative accomplishments of another without giving credit to the source or sources). The faculty member in whose course or under whose tutelage an act of academic dishonesty occurs has the option of failing the student for the academic hours in question and may refer the case to other academic personnel for further action. Emporia State University may impose penalties for academic dishonesty up to and including expulsion from the university. In this course, the penalty for academic dishonesty is a failing grade for the course.

STUDENT DISABILITY:

Emporia State University will make reasonable accommodations for persons with documented disabilities. Students need to contact the Director of Disability Services and the professor as early in the semester as possible to ensure that classroom and academic accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion. All communications between students, the Office of Disability Services, and the professor will be strictly confidential. Contact Information for the Office of Disability Services is: South Morse Hall, Room 211, 620/341-6637 Voice, 620/341-6646 TTY, or Via e-mail disabser@emporia.edu.
