

EMPORIA STATE UNIVERSITY

Koch Center for Leadership & Ethics

Faculty Grants- Fall 2014

Jorge Ballestar, Ph.D. (Physics):

Equipping future leaders with usable scientific thinking tools, and promoting scientific objectivity by placing authentic science in the center of the discussion, rather than by participating in politicized debates.

Project Semester: Spring 2015

Raffaele DeVito, Ph.D. (Management):

An investigation of awareness and attitudes concerning ethics, regulations, and leadership in a free market society.

Project Semester: Fall 2014

Sharath Sasidharan, Ph.D. (Information Systems):

Student teams design and implement research projects that examine different aspects of the impact of technology on leadership in a Web 2.0 environment.

Project Semester: Spring 2015

Tanja Steigner, Ph.D. (Finance):

A discussion with students how sound money and freedom to trade internationally impact economic freedom.

Project Semester: Fall 2014

Jun Yu, Ph.D. (Marketing):

Market leadership and ethics in marketing strategy, and, leadership and ethics within an organization.

Project Semester: Fall 2014

Joyce Zhou, Ph.D. (Marketing):

An exploration of factors affecting ethical decision making, with focus on the service industry.

Project Semester: Fall 2014

