FACULTY RESEARCH AND CREATIVITY GRANT AWARDS
FOR FISCAL YEAR 2006

James Aber, Physical Sciences. Glaciotectonic Landforms and Structures of Coastal Islands: Massachusetts, New York, and Rhode Island. $1,500 for summer operating expenditures.

Tim Burnett, Biological Sciences. Uterine Natural Killer Cells: A Pilot Study in Functional Genomics. $8,280 for a graduate research assistant, $1,900 for operating expenditures, and $1,300 for student payroll.

Malonne Davies, Physical Sciences. In Vitro Investigation of Potential Interaction between OTC Drugs and Botanical Supplements. $2,915 for operating expenditures.

Ron Keith, Physical Sciences, Dave Saunders, Biological Sciences, and Elizabeth Yanik, Mathematics, Computer Science and Economics. Mechanisms of Propulsion in Penguins. $3,000 for operating expenditures.

Monica Kjellman-Chapin, Art. Constructing Kinkadeland: The Painter of Light as Medium and Meta-Work. $1,500 for summer operating expenditures.

Patrick Martin, Art. Sculpture. $1,500 for summer operating expenditures.

Corinne Painter, Social Sciences. Phenomenology and the Non-Human Animal. $1,500 for summer operating expenditures.

Lauren Shapiro, Psychology and Special Education. An International Study of Flashbulb and Event Memory for September 11th. $6,656 for a graduate teaching assistant and $620 for operating expenditures.

William Smith, Business Administration and Education. Entrepreneurial Education Resource Inventory and Integration Plan. $8,280 for a graduate research assistant and $900 for operating expenditures.

Leland Sudlow, Biological Sciences. An Examination of Microtubule Disruption Leading to Neuronal Death during Exposure to Beta-amyloid, the Toxic Peptide of Alzheimer’s Disease. $8,280 for a graduate research assistant and $2,803 for operating expenditures.