John A. Notheis (BS '54, MS '58), Spearfish, SD, is a retired teacher. He writes: Following graduation in 1954, I spent two years in the US Army as a radar operator at an outpost in Alaska. I returned to ESU in 1956, taught one year at Highland Park High School in Topeka, KS, then came back to ESU for a master’s degree, which I received in 1958. After that, I worked in the actuarial department at Metropolitan Life Insurance Company at the home office in New York City. From September 1959 to June 1964, I taught high school mathematics on Long Island. From September 1964 until January 1977, I taught mathematics at Yankton College, in Yankton, SD. At Yankton College I became a professor of mathematics, headed the division of natural sciences; was dean of the college for two years; and served as a track coach for six years. From January 1977 until June 1980, I was head track and cross country coach at the University of South Dakota. I stepped out of education until September 1981, when I accepted a math teaching position at Yankton High School. I retired from Yankton High School in June 1989. In September 1991, I accepted a teaching position at Black Hills State University, in Spearfish, SD. I was responsible for math education in the college of education at BHSU. I retired from full-time teaching at BHSU in 1997, and from part-time teaching in 1999. My wife and I spend our summers at our home in Spearfish, SD, and winters in Scottsdale, AZ. We have three children, two girls and a boy, all teachers.
