Emporia State University Department of Nursing
End of Program Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates of the Department of Nursing are prepared with the knowledge, skills, and attitudes to meet the program’s end of program student outcomes and function as professional nurses.

1. Synthesize empirical and theoretical knowledge from nursing and the arts, sciences, and humanities to demonstrate higher order problem solving.
2. Demonstrate professional nursing values within the framework of legal, ethical, and professional standards.
3. Demonstrate leadership abilities in the role of a professional nurse.
4. Provide professional nursing care to promote health, reduce risk, and manage illness and disease.
5. Demonstrate Therapeutic Nursing Interventions necessary to deliver professional nursing care.

Expected Level Achievement (ELA) and Actual Level of Achievement (ALA) for Summative End of Program Student Learning Outcomes (SLO):
Academic Year 2017-2018 and 3-Year 2016-2018 Trends

ELA: At least 50% of Department of Nursing Seniors attain the 0.94 probability of passing NCLEX-RN on the Comprehensive Assessment Metric. (SLO 1-5)
   ELA met. ALA: 2017-2018 = 78%
   ELA met. ALA: Three-year trend 2016-2018 = 69%

ELA: 100% of Department of Nursing Seniors attain a competency score (Level 2) on the Summative Senior Competency Evaluation (CE) and Summative Clinical Evaluation Tool (CET). (SLO 1-5)
   ELA met. ALA: 2017-2018 = 100%
   ELA met. ALA: Three-year trend 2016-2018 = 100%

ELA: 100% of Department of Nursing Seniors attain a proficiency level 1 on the Leadership ATI Content Mastery Exam. (SLO 1-5)
   ELA progressing positively toward goal. ALA: 2017-2018 = 96%
   ELA Three-year trend 2016-2018 = 80% and progressing positively toward goal.

ELA: (a) 100% report they agree or highly agree on attainment of End of Program SLOs on faculty course evaluations, and (b) report capable or highly capable on the End of Program SLO attainment on senior exit interview. (SLO 1-5)
   ELA met. ALA: 2017-2018 = 100% (a) & (b) 87%
   ELA Three-year trend 2016-2018 = 100% (a) & 96% (b)
Expected Level Achievement (ELA) and Actual Level of Achievement (ALA) for Summative End of Program Student Learning Outcomes (SLO):
Academic Year 2017-2018 and 3-Year 2016-2018 Trends
ELA-Expected Level of Achievement

Leadership Measure: Percent of Students Attaining Proficiency ELA: 100% Level I

Attainment Student Learning Outcomes Capable or Highly Capable ELA: 100%

Faculty Agree or Highly Agree Attainment of End of Program SLO ELA: 100%

Percent Attaining Level 2 Competency (Rubric 0,1,2) ELA 100%

0.94 Probability Passing NCLEX Eligible to Test Before Transcript ELA: 50%