- 2.5 grade point average in all courses taken at Emporia State University

Total Hours and Residency Requirements

- 124 semester hours (minimum)
- 15 hours toward the major completed at ESU
- 45 Upper-division hours

Residency Requirements can be met in one of two ways:
1) Earn a total of 75 hours of resident credit, of which 6 must be within the final 12 hours
2) Earn 30 of the final 45 hours in residence, of which 6 of the final 12 hours must be in residence.

Additional Information

This degree prepares students for careers for which a broad liberal arts background is essential. These include numerous areas of private business and government service. Many students who pursue this major also undertake additional professional training in such areas as law, religion, library science, and journalism. Additional work beyond the undergraduate major in history may also qualify one to teach history in college, or to pursue a career in museum or archival work. Students may be licensed to teach while pursuing the BA in history; ask advisor for details. Students must also complete 10 hours of a foreign language for the BA degree.

This checklist has been created as a guide and is not considered an official document. Students are responsible for checking for required prerequisites in the University Catalog for all courses listed. For further information about meeting degree requirements, consult your academic advisor and the University Catalog.
