1. Step 1: Click “Desktop” on Start screen. If the computer is set up to auto boot up to desktop screen, skip to STEP 2.

2. Step 2: Right click the wireless indicator at bottom right screen. Click "Open Network and Sharing Center”

3. Step 3: Select "Set up a new connection or network".
4. Step 4: Select "Manually connect to a wireless network". Click "Next".

5. Step 5:
   a) Type ESU for "Network Name".
   b) Select WPA2-Enterprise for "Security type".
   c) Leave "Encryption type" as AES.
   d) Check "Start this connection automatically".
   e) Click next.
6. Step 6: Click "Change connection settings".

7. Step 7:
   a) Click the "Security" tab.
   b) Make sure Microsoft: Protected EAP is selected for "Choose a network...".
   c) Check "Remember my credentials...".
   d) Click "Settings".

8. Step 8:
   a) Uncheck "Verify the..."
   b) Select Secure Password for "Select Authentication Method".
   c) Uncheck "Enable Fast Reconnect".
   d) Click "Configure".
Step 9:

a) Uncheck "Automatically use...". Click "Ok".

b) Click "Ok" in the next window.

Step 10:

a) Click Advanced Settings in the ESU Wireless Network window.

b) Check "Specify authentication mode".

c) Select "User authentication" in drop-down box.

d) Click "Save credentials".
Step 11:
- a) Enter your Buzzin username and password.
- b) Click "OK".
- c) Click "OK" on the Advance Settings window.

Step 12:
- a) Click "Ok" in ESU Wireless Network Properties window.
- b) Click "Close" in Manually connect to wireless network window.
13. Step 13: Hover over the wireless indicator. It should say “ESU Internet Access” and you should be connected. If not, proceed to next step.

14. Step 14: Select ESU. Check “Connect automatically”. Click “Connect”.

Final

You should now be connected.